

Bring happiness and enthusiasm into the workplace

Art of Workplace Happiness

Awakening the Heart of Leadership Potential

When leaders create a conscious culture of happiness and enthusiasm, that is aligned with the values of their employees, profitability increases through greater employee satisfaction and performance. Healthy workplaces create happy employees who are less stressed, more focused and creative, and as a result more productive.

Results:

- Create a workplace culture of participation and engagement
- Connect the head and the heart through values-based leadership
- Awaken the potential of values-based leadership to bring happiness and enthusiasm into the workplace

Conscious Culture

How to Build Your High Performing Workplace Culture

Building an impactful, people-centric, high performing workplace culture unleashes the tremendous potential within your organisation. In this keynote leaders learn how to create a workplace culture that is highly motivated, engaged, and productive. A winning environment that provides conditions for its leaders, employees, customers, and key stakeholders to succeed and grow.

Results:

- Attract, engage and retain valuable employees for greater customer satisfaction and revenue growth
- Enhance internal culture to create a stronger external brand
- Assess the current culture, organisational climate, and capacity for business transformation.

Effective Relationships

People are Complex; Relationships Don't Have to Be

The workshop is based on powerful yet simple approaches to help individuals and teams develop the awareness and skills they need to build more effective personal and professional relationships.

Results:

- Increase awareness of motivational values
- Communicate more effectively and transform interpersonal conflict
- Build stronger teams and develop leadership

AUTHOR - Conscious Culture
Global Speaker

"People ask me how to build a happy workplace culture. I tell them it takes conscious leadership: with Awareness to engage the intellect, Belongingness to engage the heart, and Commitment to engage the whole organization. Values are the language of the heart, and when they are lived give a positive mental attitude."
